ADRIANA FERFECKA - SOPRANO

“Adriana Ferfecka shone brightest in the title role and is striking in her interpretation and authenticity. Pain, suffering, a sense of rejection and despair pushing her to take her own life – she was able to express all of this with a gesture, glance, stage movement, and above all, her voice.” - Suor Angelica, (BeataFisher.com)

Polish soprano Adriana Ferfecka completed her vocal studies at Frydryk Chopin University of Music in Warsaw. Her upcoming engagements include Mimi in La Bohème, and Nedda in I Pagliacci for Wrocław Opera, Micaela in Carmen at the Teatr Wielki Narodowa, and Liu in Turandot for Teatro dell’Opera di Roma. Recent engagements include the title role of Suor Angelica at the Inauguration of the Ada Sari International Vocal Artistry Festival, Mimi in La Bohème for Wrocław Opera, Corinna in Il Viaggio a Reims for Teatro dell’Opera di Roma, Susanna in Le nozze di Figaro in Cagliari, Gianni Schicchi for Dutch National Opera, Valencienne in Die lustige Witwe at Teatro La Fenice, Teatro dell’Opera di Rome and Teatro San Carlo in Naples, Micaela in Carmen for Deutsche Oper Berlin, Illia in Idomeneo in Rome, Adina in L’elisir D’amore at the Silesian Opera House in Bytom, Saffi in Die Zigeunerbaron at the Stanislaw Moniuszko Podlasie Opera, La traviata in Grand Teatre Poznan.

Adriana has worked with many important conductors including Paolo Arrivabeni, Andrea Battistoni, Marc Albrecht, Donald Runnicles, Michele Mariotti, Diego Matheuz, Stefano Montanari, Ivan Repusic, Alexander Vedernikov, and Sebastian Weigle.

In 2015 she was admitted to the Young Artists Program of the Salzburg Festival, where she made her debut as Rosina in Il Barbiere di Siviglia.
